True Freedom Trust (TFT) is a confidential Christian support and teaching ministry that holds to authentic biblical teaching on sexuality. We offer support to those facing same-sex temptations (as well as their relatives, friends and church leaders) who choose not to embrace a gay identity or to pursue a same-sex relationship because of convictions of faith.

Supporting the Work of TFT

We would value your prayers and encouragement for our ministry. Please pray with us for:

God's continued provision in terms of finance and resources

Individuals coming to us for help - that they would find encouragement and a loving, supportive community

Our staff team as they co-ordinate the ministry, offer pastoral support and organise events

Our team of volunteers, as they lead Barnabas support groups and meet with people who contact us for pastoral support

Our speakers, as they share their own stories and help the church to remain faithful to authentic biblical teaching

TFT's continuing positive influence on the wider church

Please join our membership to receive our newsletter and regular prayer updates

We depend on the gifts of Christians, churches and other charitable trusts who share our vision for promoting biblical sexuality. As we make no formal charge for providing pastoral support or teaching, we rely on donations to be able provide services to individuals and the church in the UK and beyond. These include biblical teaching, pastoral guidance, support groups and conferences.

Your gift will help us to continue this valuable work.
